

Exhibit 1

CPRS COMMUNITY CHAMPION AWARD NOMINEES – 2025

Carol Isaia-Montoya - (Chino Community Gardener)

Carol Isaia-Montoya has been a gardener at the Chino Community Garden since 2021. Since joining the Garden, Carol has donated her time and expertise to gardening. She maintains several City plots within the Garden, making sure they are actively planted and ready for monthly workshops. Carol attends almost every Community Garden and Children's Discovery Workshop to volunteer and assist staff. She is an essential member of the Community Garden. Carol has shown herself to be a true champion of the Chino community.

Mary Harshfield - (Chino Senior Citizens' Club)

Mary Harshfield was selected as 2025 Senior Volunteer of the Year for her exceptional service and unwavering dedication to the Chino Senior Center. Serving as Senior Bingo Board President and Senior Citizens' Board Treasurer, Mary has demonstrated outstanding dedication and leadership. Through her tireless efforts, Mary has brought joy, connection, and a sense of community to her fellow seniors. From organizing games and coordinating volunteers to ensure every Bingo event runs smoothly, Mary goes above and beyond, consistently demonstrating a determined attitude and genuine care for the participants. Though countless hours of planning, organizing, and hosting, she exemplifies the very best of volunteerism as a Community Champion.

Courtney Garcia - (Chino American Little League)

Courtney Garcia has been a cornerstone of Chino American Little League for over 12 years, dedicating her time, energy, and heart to serving this community. Her commitment to the league has touched countless lives and helped shape the character of Chino American Little League.

Courtney has served as President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Mentor. Her institutional knowledge and leadership have been instrumental in maintaining continuity and excellence over the years. Courtney exemplifies the values of leadership, teaching, dedication, planning, sportsmanship, and positive coaching. She is known for her calm demeanor, ability to organize complex logistics, and tireless efforts to support both volunteers and families. She has trained multiple Presidents and Board Members, ensuring that each new generation of leadership is equipped with the tools and knowledge to succeed.

In addition to her official roles, Courtney quietly sponsors a child every year to cover their registration fees, ensuring that financial hardship never stands in the way of a child's opportunity to play. This act of generosity reflects her deep compassion and belief in the power of youth sports to transform lives.

Courtney was selected as the 2025 Chino Youth Christmas Parade Grand Marshal, and she is a legend within Chino American Little League, a true champion of the Chino Community.

Flor Hernandez - (Teen Advisory Committee)

Flor, a senior at Chino High School, has been an active member of the City of Chino's Teen Advisory Committee (TAC) since 2024.

The City of Chino established TAC to provide meaningful youth input on teen-related issues and to encourage greater community involvement in municipal government. Members are appointed annually through a competitive application process.

During her tenure on TAC, Flor has consistently provided thoughtful insights on youth-related concerns and practical recommendations to the Community Services, Parks & Recreation (CSPR) Department regarding programs and initiatives throughout the City of Chino. She currently serves as Chairperson demonstrating strong leadership and initiative. Flor has played an integral role in numerous community service efforts, including TAC's Halloween costume and hygiene drives, preparation of Santa's Village for the Chino Youth Museum, and the recent Chino Teen Center Beautification Project. In addition, she remains highly engaged with CSPR by volunteering at various City events, representing the Department in social media campaigns, and supporting the Chino Valley Unified School District's CARE Closet.

Beyond her involvement with TAC, Flor is deeply committed to her school community. She is a member of the Ivy League Club, which focuses on community service opportunities for students interested in medical careers and serves as the Boys Volleyball Team Manager at Chino High School. Flor also extends her civic engagement by serving on the Youth Advisory Committee for Congresswoman Norma J. Torres.

Following graduation, Flor plans to pursue a degree in respiratory therapy, with the goal of becoming a pediatric respiratory therapist. Flor Hernandez exemplifies leadership, service, and dedication, and is truly deserving of recognition as a champion of the Chino community.

Kiwanis Club of Chino

Celebrating 65 years in 2026, the Kiwanis Club of Chino has been a steadfast and generous partner to the Chino community, consistently supporting City programs, events, and residents of all ages. Through both financial contributions and hands-on volunteerism, the Club has made a lasting impact on families, youth, and seniors.

Their generous donations have helped offset the cost of summer field trips for City Camp participants, ensuring children can enjoy enriching experiences regardless of financial barriers. The Club has also supported meaningful community initiatives, including Joy to a Senior, PATCH medication support, holiday giveaways, Chino Youth Museum, and Back-to-School event. They continue to sponsor many citywide special events that foster community engagement.

Beyond donations, Kiwanis Club members actively serve at community events, running the snack bar at the Chino Valley Youth Track and Field Meet, cook and serve breakfast at the annual Run for Russ 5K and Community Walk, and consistently stepping up wherever help is needed.

For the last 24 years, the Kiwanis Club of Chino has hosted the Corn Feed Car Show and Cruise that attracts over 1,000 classic cars and their Summer Concert Series that take place at the City Hall Lawn, where thousands attend yearly. Proceeds are ultimately returned to the community in various ways.

The Kiwanis Club of Chino exemplifies service, generosity, and dedication, and is truly deserving of this recognition as a Community Champion.